Case No. AP-83-39

By motion filed September 7, 1983, applicant, inter alia., */ seeks relief from that part of Order No. 2452 which requires the production of applicant's books and records. On September 14, 1983, protestant Babel Travel Service, Inc., filed an objection to the motion.

A.M.A. correctly states that it has submitted various materials relating to allegedly unauthorized transportation of passengers on June 15, 1983, including an itinerary and vouchers which were not a part of this record when we were considering Order No. 2452. Nevertheless, the issue of applicant's fitness goes beyond that one incident and is an appropriate subject of inquiry in these proceedings. A.M.A. sets forth no reason why production of its records for the month of June 1983 would constitute an "... undue burden on applicant." Accordingly, this part of the motion shall be denied.

The said production of books and records shall take place on Thursday, October 6, 1983, at 10 a.m. at the office of the Commission.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

BY DIRECTION OF THE COMMISSION, COMMISSIONERS WORTHY, SCHIFTER AND SHANNON:

WILLIAM H. MCGILVERY
Executive Director

*/ The motion also sought postponement of the public hearing and corresponding extensions of time to make certain filings. The postponement and extensions were directed by Order No. 2462, served September 8, 1983.
